

Seventeenth-Century News

Dear Reviewer:

Thank you for agreeing to review this book, which will become your property after you have submitted the review. We ask reviewers for Seventeenth-Century News to provide an accurate, balanced description of the contents relevant for our audience (i.e., seventeenth-century specialists) and its method of treatment, together with a critical evaluation of its significance. Normally, reviews are about normally 1500-2000 words long though can be longer if you wish. Please send an electronic version of your review as an attached file via e-mail in Word or Rich Text format to d-dickson@tamu.edu. We edit the journal in Word and then Adobe InDesign. Reviews should be proofread carefully though we send a proof before publication.

In general Seventeenth-Century News follows the rules of style as set forth by the Modern Language Association. Please use double-spacing for the header and the text. We include page references for all quotations from the book being reviewed in parenthesis without “p.” or “pp.” Footnotes cannot be included in reviews. For the header, please adapt the following format:

Jane Doe. Title of the Book. Place: Press, 2021. x + 210 pp. + 8 illus. $80.00.
